Wine Lovers Experience

HIGHLIGHTS

- › Travel by private helicopter from San Francisco to an exclusive Napa Valley Winery
- › Enjoy a culinary lunch experience, including a tour of the vineyard and gastronomic garden
- › Savor a relaxing wine tasting expertly paired with delectable small plate delicacies

Napa Valley, known for its breathtaking views, charming residents, delicious farm-to-table restaurants as well as world-class vineyards and wineries, has long been considered a premier destination. Lift off from San Francisco via private helicopter to an exclusive Napa Valley Estate, where guests will partake in a tour of the vineyard, followed by an elegant wine tasting and food pairing.

Enjoy the helicopter views of Sausalito and the Marin Hills while en route to Napa Valley, a leading travel destination known worldwide for its vineyards and excellent wines. After landing at a Napa Valley Estate surrounded by heritage oak woodlands and natural riparian streams, wine lovers will meander through 350 vineyard-covered acres consisting of a patchwork of 60 different small vineyards, each dedicated to producing distinctive wines of elegance and power. Knowledgeable sommeliers will present an in-depth overview of the cultivation, production and intricacies of each varietal.

Following the vineyard tour, guests are led through the new culinary garden where organically-farmed produce is the inspiration for the Executive Chef's culinary artistry. Guests then arrive at the Pavilion – a conservatory overlooking the equestrian center with panoramic views of the Valley.

At the Pavilion, guests enjoy a sit-down tasting of the wines paired with small plates prepared by the estate's Chef. Following the tasting, guests board the helicopter for the relaxing return trip to San Francisco, ending with the welcoming sight of the spectacular city skyline.

Lasting 4 hours, guests will have experienced the epitome of Napa elegance and charm. That evening, reservations will be made at a preferred restaurant in San Francisco, for example, Gary Danko's or Waterbar.

The VIP Concierge department recommends the Clift or the Mandarin Oriental for stays in San Francisco.

Explore Amangani and Jackson Hole

HIGHLIGHTS

- › Downhill and cross-country skiing, snowboarding and snowshoeing in a region that averages 400 feet of snow per year
- › Private photography tour of Jackson Hole with professional photographer
- › Winter and summer wildlife safari

Amangani, meaning peaceful home, is a year-round destination. A premier ski resort from December through March, and the ideal base for exploring the magnificent surroundings in the warmer months. The luxury Yellow Stone resort is perched on the edge of East Gros Ventre Butte in Jackson Hole, a high mountain valley in northwest Wyoming. There, luxury accommodations are combined with top-of-the-line activities:

skiing, snowboarding, snowmobiling, snowshoeing, and sleigh rides in the winter months; hiking, fly fishing, kayaking, canoeing and whitewater rafting in the spring, summer and fall; incredible wildlife safari and scenyc tours throughout the Grand Teton National Park all year round.

› The Jackson Hole Mountain Resort alone offers more than 1,000 hectares of skiing and snowboarding terrain, along with a vertical drop of more than 1,260 m. Ski lessons are organized at the Bridger Gondola lounge.

› Throughout the valley, there is ample opportunity for cross-country skiing, snowmobiling, snowshoeing, hiking mountain biking and rock climbing.

› Dinner sleigh rides are a winter highlight, especially on moonlit nights. Sleighs take guests up the ridge of the butte to reveal panoramic views of the valley.

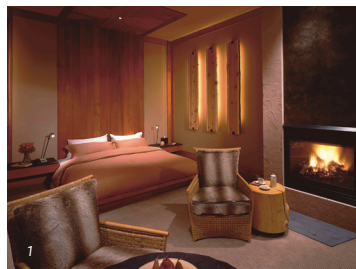

› Combine your stay with a Wildlife Safari where you get up-close-and-personal with the abundant wildlife that calls Jackson Hole home. Start by exploring the National Elk refuge, home to thousands of wintering elk, bison, bighorn sheep and an array of waterfowl. Then head north along the western boundary of the refuge to Grand Teton National Park.

› For an extra special trip, join a professional nature photographer for a private, photography-oriented tour of Jackson Hole. Guides will share their knowledge of photography technique and equipment with ample time for taking pictures of your area of interest.

› The Resort Spa and Fitness Centre features treatment rooms, exercise studios, separate steam rooms and individualized yoga programmes.

› Amangani's 35-metre (115-foot), heated, outdoor swimming pool is finished in frost-coloured quartzite tiles and is linked to a 10.5-square metre (113- square foot) whirlpool. Both enjoy magnificent mountain views, especially at sunset. With a winter water

Fashion Lover's Dream

HIGHLIGHTS

- › Prep like the stars with a professional makeover or a proper men's shave and groom by a veteran barber
 - › Go behind the scenes to leading fashion houses and take advantage of insider prices
 - › Indulge with dinner at Armani Ristorante, atop its namesake's Fifth Avenue showroom

Experience the fashion capital like an industry insider. From designer showroom visits with a personal stylist to a professional makeover or proper shave, to dinner at a designer's Fifth Avenue store, this is a fashion-lovers' dream. During the three-day visit to New York, guests will go behind the scenes of famed designer studios and will have the opportunity to purchase high-end designer clothing at prices reserved for "insiders".

The fashion journey begins with an exclusive behind the scenes tour of the industry's most respected ateliers. Fashion guides and designers will discuss menswear, women's wear, couture, jewelry, accessories, as well as offer personal styling advice. Step into a limo and pop the champagne while en route to luxury retailers such as Prada, Armani, Pucci, Gucci, Dior and Versace for incredible shopping and savings. Guests will also receive an exclusive invitation to a private jewelry atelier for high-end jewelry typically worn by the global elite.

The VIP Concierge department recommends the Greenwich Hotel or the Crosby Hotel for stays in New York City.

Beginning with a professional makeover or proper shave and groom, prepare for the special evening ahead like a celebrity going to an award show. After getting personally styled, guests will be taken to Armani Ristorante, the exclusive restaurant atop the designer's Fifth Avenue showroom. The evening concludes or continues with dancing until dawn at one of Manhattan's premier nightclubs.

Escape to the Hamptons

HIGHLIGHTS

- › Travel in style via seaplane from New York City to East Hampton
 - › Stay at a historic mansion turned luxury hotel by world-famous restaurateur
 - › Sunbathe, walk, swim or surf amongst some of the most coveted beaches from South Hampton to Montauk

Very few places in the United States have a reputation for affluence and exclusivity like the Hamptons. A longtime favorite of the New York elite, the Hamptons attract the rich, famous and beautiful to renowned beaches, high-end boutiques, delectable restaurants and five-star accommodations. Escape the city on a private seaplane to Bridgehampton's

Topping Rose House, a historic mansion that has been recently renovated to a full-service luxury hotel by leading restaurateur Tom Colicchio.

The Hamptons have long been synonymous with lavish summer getaways. From South Hampton to Montauk, the South Fork of Long Island has been a playground for the world's select for generations. Guests skip the traffic and travel by seaplane from Manhattan to East Hampton and check-in to Bridgehampton's Topping Rose House, the historic mansion, turned full-service luxury hotel. The hotel provides Jaguars, Range Rovers or bikes for guest wishing to cruise from beach to beach or town to town.

Built in 1842, the Topping Rose House is a historic mansion in the heart of Bridgehampton. Transformed into a full-service luxury hotel, the estate now boasts 22 guestrooms, a restaurant, full-service spa and elegant décor throughout. Many of the mansion's original touches have been restored, including the wood floors, banisters and fireplace mantels, in order to maintain its historic character. Guestrooms boast marble bathrooms, plush upholstered furniture and state-of-the-art technology.

Located outside the main house and on lush grounds, one finds a spa, gym, pool and four contemporary cottages. The four-star restaurant specializes in farm-to-table cuisine, with vegetables grown in a one-acre garden located on the estate.

Adrenaline Enthusiast Weekend

HIGHLIGHTS

- › Pilot a high-performance airplane alongside trained fighter pilots who will instruct guests on classic combat tactics
- › Hike and zipline through Bootleg Canyon while enjoying stunning views of the Mojave Desert
- › Climb Red Rock Canyon's red, pink and cream-colored Aztec sandstone walls

Leave the Vegas Strip behind and embark on an adrenaline-fueled adventure. Take the controls and learn real air-to-air combat tactics that have been refined since the days of Red Baron. Hike and zipline through Bootleg Canyon located in the Nevada desert. Guests learn to rock climb or improve their advanced skills by climbing a long, multi-pitch route in the magnificent Red Rock Canyon.

Strap in and prepare for the flight of a lifetime. Alongside trained fighter pilots guests will jump into the cockpit and pilot their very own 330-horsepower Extra 330LC and practice air-to-air combat tactics. Instructors will also demonstrate how to execute loops, rolls, Cuban 8's and hammerheads before guests take the controls and perform tail slides, spins and tumbles.

Experience the Mojave Desert while hiking and ziplining through Bootleg Canyon. Guides accompany guests on a hike to the summit of Red Mountain where they will take in awe-inspiring views of Las Vegas Valley, Lake Mead and the Eldorado Valley. Once at the summit, they will strap in and prepare for four exhilarating zipline rides ranging from a 450-foot plunge in 15 seconds to a scenic half-mile run.

After a high-impact day, guests will be treated to a massage at one of the Strip's premier spas.

The VIP Concierge department recommends the Cosmopolitan, the Wynn or the Aria for stays in Las Vegas and reservations at preferred restaurants such as Mix and STK.

Red Rock Canyon rises 3,000 feet, making it the perfect location to learn to rock climb or build new skills. While on the Aztec sandstone wall, climbers find some of the longest and best non-granitic climbs in the country. Routes range from exceptionally steep to long and moderately difficult.

Christmas in New York City

HIGHLIGHTS

- › Admire the holiday lights of Manhattan and Brooklyn in a private chauffeured car
 - › Attend traditional Christmas-themed events, including Radio City Christmas Spectacular and the Nutcracker Ballet
 - › Accommodation at the 5-star Plaza Hotel or Mandarin Oriental

Christmas in New York has been the backdrop for countless movies, television shows and novels. Travellers from far and wide arrive in the Big Apple to be part of the festivities and to witness traditions such as the lighting of the tree in Rockefeller Centre and the Radio City Christmas Spectacular. The holiday season offers a special opportunity to experience the city during this magical time of year.

› The Christmas season in New York officially kicks off with the lighting of the Rockefeller Centre Christmas tree. A tradition for over 75-years, the iconic tree is the definitive highlight of the holiday season and attracts visitors to marvel at its giant stature and brilliant lights. The ice skating rink in front of the tree offers wonderful photo opportunities and provides an exceptional view of Rockefeller Centre.

› Celebrating 85 years, the Radio City Christmas Spectacular is a staple of the holiday season. The Rockettes, the stars of the show, are known worldwide for their legendary eye-high kicks, classic glamour and consummate dance skills.

› Window shopping at the city's high-end retailers has long been a popular tourist attraction. Retailers such as Saks Fifth Avenue, Macy's and Bloomingdale's boast intricate window displays and are the ideal location to complete your Christmas shopping.

› By the 1940s, the Nutcracker Ballet made its way to America and has since become an annual holiday tradition.

Performed in the heart of Lincoln Centre, the ballet features music from legendary composer, Tchaikovsky, and a performance that warms the spirit.

› FAO Schwarz is the oldest toy store in the United States and is known for its unique high-end toys, life-sized stuffed animals, dolls and games.

Personal shoppers help customers navigate through the store to find the perfect present. No trip to FAO Schwarz would be complete without a dance on the famous floor piano.

› The best way to experience everything the city has to offer is with a private chauffeured car with tour guide to view the holiday lights from the streets of Manhattan and Brooklyn. During the 4-hour tour, guests pass iconic New York City landmarks, stopping for photo opportunities along the way.
